

INCONSISTENCY

The question often arises, whether the inherent principle of Polygamy, and should there be any difference between the conception of Josephite, for the Mormon Scripture, and the Brighamite? The answer is simply this—the Josephites follow the mandates or teachings of the authors of the Mormon religion, while the Brighamites pattern after no recognized Christian precedent; they are the founders of their own religion, and can produce no evidence to warrant the justice of it. The Book of Mormon and the Book of Covenant furnish no evidence recognizing or even excusing the practice of Polygamy.

This fact is alone sufficient to justify the Josephites in their position, as apostates from the Mormon Church, because every denomination must have some foundation for its creed, and the Polygamaists of Brighamite claim theirs as enunciated by the Book of Mormon and Book of Covenant. We challenge them to produce any authority for this assumption. If there is just evidence for the practice of Polygamy, what cause is there to mistrust the designs of the Josephites. Both pretend to recognize the same authority for their religion.

Why not the two factions meet each other in public debate? Or is it the positive injunction of the Mormon Church not to test the public's opinion by a comparison? But this cannot be the case with the Josephites. They seem anxious for a controversy with the Brighamites or any other denomination of religious pretensions. The fact is, they dare not trust their fallacy to critical scrutiny. Their preservation depends upon the success of their delusory teachings on the ignorant and superstitious.

Maguire was undoubtedly murdered, and the building fired to conceal the crime. Maguire was supposed to have $500 or $600 about the premises.

Mr. Demarest, a well known and much respected citizen of Omaha, was followed to his last resting-place by his numerous friends on the 30th ult. A new German paper, to be called "Die Packel," (The Torch) is about being started at Wyandotte, Kansas. The steamer Cornelia is stuck on the bar in the vicinity of St. Joe. The triumph of electricity over time and distance, of which the success of the Atlantic cable furnishes the most impressive illustration, recalls to mind the following lines, written by the late Rev. John Pierpont, during the Presidency of General Taylor:

The warrior statesman, laying down his pen, Retires to bed in Washington at ten;
The lightning courier leaps along the wire, And at St. Louis tells the tale at nine;
Holding a thousand miles whence he departed, And getting there an hour before he started.

A fellow who has had "the mites" more than a dozen times says that the custom of joining hands in matrimony is said to be taken from the practice of pagans shaking hands before they begin to fight.

The London Daily News of the 1st says: Confederate bonds, which of late have been altogether neglected, are in demand at an advance. They closed at 4 1/4. It is surmised that accounts may have arrived favorable to the Philadelphia Convention. It is difficult, however, to see how the prospects of bondholders can be improved thereby; since an absolute condition has been made and agreed to that the war debt of the South should be totally repudiated.

Independence Belge thus announces the failure of the Arch Duke as Emperor's negotiations with Napoleon: The Empress Carlotta has paid her last visit to the Emperor, and there is no longer the slightest doubt that His Majesty announced to that princess, with extreme regret, his irrevocable resolution not to subscribe to any of the arrangements which she had come to propose as the means of aiding the dynasty of Mexico. It is now certain that the Empress of Mexico will not again return to that country, and that Maximilian will soon join her in Europe.

It was soon suppressed. The result, one killed and two wounded. The Portland Oreg. Journal gives a list of seventeen "solid men" of that city whose aggregate weight is 3,703 pounds. The biggest weighs 260 pounds, the smallest 200.

A Good story is told of Gen. Grapville M. Dodge, the Union candidate in Mr. Kasson's District. While he was in command at Vicksburg, he enforced strictly the regulations in regard to potation. The speculators tried his metal by the usual appliances—an offer of $50,000 in gold; then $100,000, $150,000, $200,000. He then sent a dispatch to Washington asking to be removed from command. He said he had been offered $500,000 to discontinue orders, which was so near his price that he was afraid the next offer would bring him in.

Saying nothing of this, he proposed marriage to the girl, who accepted, and immediately married. Then he informed her of the fact of 6,391, but was surprised at being told that she had afterward concluded not to buy any ticket in the lottery.

THE Rev. Father Kelly has been very successful thus far in his efforts to raise funds for the building of his church in this city. NEW DISCOVERIES.—According to our Montana exchanges, extensive placer diggings have been discovered near Fort Lemhi, on a tributary of South Salmon. Four years ago very good prospects were obtained in the vicinity of Lemhi, but not sufficient to induce those who secured them to stop at that time to prosecute their search further. They were Florence basin bound, and nothing short of tonnage diggings would have been any temptation for them to stop. We look forward to a large mining camp being opened there, as the country has every indication of rich mineral deposits.

NOTICE.—Whereas many who attended the Sunday evening addresses by the missionaries of the reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of L. D. S. have expressed a strong desire to again hear preaching, and whereas hundreds had no opportunity of hearing who had a desire to hear, the public are hereby notified that the stand and seats being erected by Mr. Frank Fox at his Excelsior Gardens, 12th Ward, for his forthcoming exhibition of fireworks, have been engaged for this (Wednesday) evening. The seats will accommodate from a thousand to fifteen hundred persons, and it is hoped that every seat will be filled. Service to commence at 8 p. m. N. B. No person will be allowed to go upon either part of the garden unless by special permission of the proprietor.
